Introduction

Welcome to Progress in English Grammar, Book 3. Progress in English Grammar is a series of three books which give students practice in English grammar. Book 3 is for pre-intermediate learners. You can use it in the classroom, for homework or for self-study.

Progress in English Grammar is designed to supplement your course book. The order of the sections follows the most common order of grammar presentation in major course books. However, you may not want to work straight through the book. You may want to practise only some sections, or you may want to study them in a different order from the way the book is laid out. The Contents list at the front and the Index at the back will help you to find specific grammar points.

Each of the sections has a short presentation box to remind you of a particular grammar point. This is followed by graded exercises which begin by helping you to recognise the item of grammar and to practise it on its own. Then there are exercises practising the item in other forms or with other items. For example, you will practise the past perfect simple in the positive and negative. Then you will practise it in questions. Finally, you will practise it with the past simple and time phrases such as after, before, as soon as and when. In this way both the form and the meaning of each grammar point become familiar in easy steps.

Throughout the book there are mixed practices of groups of grammar points which complement each other. The grammar items in each exercise are given at the top of each page.

For the teacher there are answer keys and progress tests available separately.

Mixed tense practice: present

• Present simple and present continuous

REMEMBER

Present simple and present continuous

We use the present simple for permanent situations and routines:

He works in a shop.

He usually goes to work at eight o'clock.

We use the present continuous for things happening at the time of speaking:

It's eight o'clock but he isn't going to work.

He's staying at home today.

We can also use the present continuous for future arrangements and planned actions:

We're flying to Istanbul on Sunday.

1 Choose the correct verb and write it in the gap.

Examples Quick! Shut the window. (it's raining / rains) It's raining.

My parents usually (are going / go) ...go... to bed at midnight.

- 1 It (isn't raining / doesn't rain) in Egypt in the summer.
- 2 They (are playing / play) tennis at the moment.
- 3 I (I'm not doing / don't do) my homework tonight
- 4 They (aren't going / don't go) out very often during the week.
- 5 Where (are you having / do you have) your party this year?
- 6 Listen! Jack (is singing / sings) in the shower again
- 7 What (are you doing / do you do) with that enormous box?
- 8 How often (are you going / do you go) to the doctor?
- 9 We sometimes (are staying / stay) with my aunt in Edinburgh.
- 10 You can turn off the TV. I (I'm not watching / don't watch) it.

• Present simple and present continuous

- 2 Use the prompts to write sentences in the present simple or the present continuous.

Examples I (write) to my grandparents once a month.

I write to my grandparents once a month.

Why (you / wear) sunglasses when it's raining?

Why are you wearing sunglasses when it's raining?

- 1 I (eat) my supper at the moment. Can you ring later?
- 2 When (your mother / get up) in the mornings?
.....
- 3 (your parents / leave) for Paris this weekend?
.....
- 4 Our teachers (not / usually / give) us homework on Thursday afternoons.
.....
- 5 (you / wear) my jacket? Please take it off now!
.....
- 6 (you / ever / leave) your bag on the bus?
.....
- 7 Who (you / take) to Soraya's New Year's Eve party?
.....
- 8 My sister and I (usually / sit) at the front of the bus.
.....
- 9 I (not / often / play) tennis in the winter.
.....
- 10 Take Mario's bike. He (not / use) it today.
.....
- 11 (you / ever / have) barbecues on the beach?
.....
- 12 Tony (help) me with my art project tomorrow afternoon.

• Present simple and present continuous

3 Put the verbs in brackets into the present simple or present continuous.

Dear Carol

I (have) am having a good time here in Rome. At the moment I (sit) (1) outside a café and I (drink) (2) lovely glass of fresh orange juice. The sun (shine) (3) but it not too bright for me because I (wear) (4) my sunglasses and a hat. Hats are the fashion in Rome this summer. The women usually (wear) (5) straw hats with flowers in them and the men often (have) (6) baseball caps.

All the young people here (go) (7) around on little motorbikes. Often they (not / wear) (8) helmets. Salvatore (not / think) (9) it's dangerous but I (know) (10) he's wrong.

Peter (take) (11) a lot of photos at the moment. He sometimes (get up) (12) at six in the morning because the light is best then. He often (go) (13) to the Piazza Navona and (take) (14) pictures of the fountains in the early morning light. He (not / like) (15) crowds of people and Rome is quite empty at six in the morning. I (not / get up) (16) before nine. I (like) (17) my sleep! What time (you / get up) (18) on work days?

(you / have) (19) good weather in England or is it raining? (Mark / work) (20) hard for his exams? When (Karl and Rod / get married) (21)

You know we usually (stay) (22) at the Serena Hotel. Well this year, we (not / stay) (23) there. But our room here at the Minerva is excellent. It (not / have) (24) a very good view but somebody (clean) (25) it every day and it's very comfortable.

That's all I have time for. Write to me if you have time!

Lots of love

Sandra

2 Past simple: regular and irregular

• Past simple: positive and negative

REMEMBER

Past simple: positive and negative

We form the past simple positive of regular verbs, by adding ed or d to the infinitive:

She walked to work this morning. She arrived at eight forty-five.

Remember that a change in spelling is sometimes necessary, e.g. stop – stopped

For the past simple of irregular verbs, see the list on pages 124–125.

We form the past simple negative of regular and irregular verbs with didn't + infinitive:

I didn't like that film.

We didn't see the TV programme about Turkish cooking.

4 Write positive and negative sentences in the past simple as in the example.

Example We (not / meet) any friends last night. We (meet) one of our teachers.

We didn't meet any friends last night. We met one of our teachers.

1 I (not / buy) a bike last weekend. I (buy) a surfboard.

2 We (not / play) tennis at my old school. We only (play) basketball.

3 They (not / make) pasta last night. They (make) pizza.

4 The thief (not / steal) her bag on Saturday. He (steal) her camera.

5 Last summer we (go) to Spain. We (not / go) to Italy.

6 Three years ago I (fall) off a horse. I (not / fall) off my bike.

7 You (choose) the blue tent. You (not / choose) the green one.

8 I (not / wake up) at three this morning. I (wake) up at four.

9 We (walk) to school yesterday. We (not / walk) to school this morning.

10 She (leave) the house at ten o'clock. She (not / leave) at eleven.

• Past simple: questions

REMEMBER

Past simple: questions

We form questions in the past simple with did + infinitive:

Did you see Jane yesterday?

Where did you spend New Year's Eve?

5 Write questions and answers in the past simple.

Example A: Where (you / sleep) last night? Where did you sleep last night?

B: We all (sleep) on the beach. ..... We all slept on the beach.....

1 A: What time (you / come) home last night?

A:

B: I (get) back about one in the morning.

B:

2 A: What (you / wear) to the party last week?

A:

B: I (wear) my new skirt and my black top.

B:

3 A: (you / tell) anyone about your exam results?

A:

B: Of course. I (tell) my parents yesterday.

B:

4 A: (you / run) well in the race this morning?

A:

B: I (ran) OK at the beginning but I (not / win) because I (fall) over!

B:

5 A: Who (win)?

A:

B: Martin (come) first.

B:

6 A: What (you / draw) in the art class yesterday?

A:

B: I (draw) a vase of flowers and then I (paint) it.

B:

• Past simple: positive, negative and questions

6 Put the verbs in brackets into the past simple.

Sue: Why (you / be) were you late for school this morning?

Ben: I (lose) (1) my glasses. I (look) (2) everywhere but I (cannot) (3) find them.

Sue: So what (you / do) (4)?

Ben: First, I (look) (5) in the sitting room. They (not / be) (6) there. So then I (go) (7) into my bedroom and I (have) (8) a look on my desk.

Sue: (they / be) (9) on your desk?

Ben: No. Then I (think) (10) for a long time and I (decide) (11) to look in the kitchen. I (open) (12) all the kitchen cupboards and (begin) (13) to look through them. I (get) (14) bored with that after five minutes and also I (feel) (15) really tired and fed up. So I (sit) (16) down and (drink) (17) a glass of orange juice and (eat) (18) an apple. That (give) (19) me a bit of energy and I (start) (20) looking again.

Sue: Well, where (you / search) (21) next?

Ben: I (not / know) (22) where to look.

I (not / have) (23) any ideas. So I (go) (24) to the bathroom to wash my hands.

Sue: And (they / be) (25) in the bathroom?

Ben: Sort of.

Sue: Where (you / find) (26) them?

Ben: Well, I (look) (27) at myself in the bathroom mirror and of course I (notice) (28) them on my head! So then I (run out) (29) and (come) (30) straight to school.

Sue: What (Mrs Chandler / say) (31) when you (arrive) (32) late? (she / be) (33) angry with you?

Ben: I (tell) (34) her about my lost glasses and she (say) (35) it was a very bad excuse.

Past continuous with while, as, when

• Past continuous with while, as, when

REMEMBER

Past continuous

We can use the past continuous and the past simple in the same sentence to show that something happened in the middle of something else. We use the past continuous for the longer action and the past simple for the shorter action.

While I was making a cake, a bird flew in through the kitchen window.

A bird flew in.

⇒ ⇒ ⇒ ⇒ ⇒ ⇒ ↓ ⇒ ⇒ ⇒ ⇒ ⇒ ⇒
I was making the cake.

As she was standing at the bus stop, somebody stole her wallet.

He was playing football when he pulled a muscle.

We often use while and as with the past continuous. We often use when with the past simple.

When the while, when or as clause comes first, it is followed by a comma.

While we were eating lunch, the phone rang.

Or The phone rang while we were eating lunch.

7 In each sentence put one verb in the past continuous and one in the past simple.

Example Philip (fix) his watch when his friend Frank (ring) at the door.

Philip was fixing his watch when his friend Frank rang at the door.

1 What (you / think) about when the teacher (ask) you that question?

2 I (find) a £20 note under my bed while I (clean) my room.

3 As we (run) around the track, I (get) a terrible pain in my leg.

4 Luckily, he (not / drive) very fast when the car (hit) the tree.

5 I (not / see) any of my friends while I (shop) in town.

6 When I first (meet) you what (you / wear)?

8 Complete the sentences by choosing the correct verb and putting it into the correct tense: past continuous or past simple.

Example (find, camp)

Were you camping when you found the snake in your shoe?

- 1 (steal, wait) As Barry for the bus, a thief his wallet.
- 2 (do, have) Wlodek the washing up when he a brilliant idea.
- 3 (not / listen, call) Thomas when I him in from the garden.
- 4 (work, hear) While I in the sitting room, I a loud crash upstairs.
- 5 (not / make, tell) We much noise when she us to be quiet.
- 6 (fall, paint) While Miguel the house, he off the ladder.
- 7 (not / look, hide) My little brother my keys under the sofa while I
- 8 (fall, watch) you asleep while you that boring video?
- 9 (push, get off) As Reyhan the bus, a horrible man her.
- 10 (wear, push) you your watch when she you into the pool?
- 11 (buy, stay) While they in Istanbul, they a beautiful carpet.
- 12 (drop, take) As I the shopping out of the bag, I the eggs.
- 13 (walk, see) you any interesting birds while you by the river.
- 14 (send, not / do) We anything wrong when the teacher us both out of the classroom.
- 15 (go, do) What you when the lights suddenly out?

- Past continuous and past simple

9 Write the verbs in the past continuous or the past simple.

Last night Angela (relax) was relaxing at home in front of the TV. She (not / watch) (1) the news because she (paint) (2) her nails, drinking tea and eating chocolate biscuits. Suddenly she (hear) (3) the name Bettina Markham. She (look) (4) up at the TV and (see) (5) her best friend, Bettina.

'Bettina Markham (stop) (6) two bank robbers outside the First Savers Bank in Bridge Street today,' the TV presenter said. 'How (you / stop) (7) the thieves, Bettina?' the TV presenter asked her.

'It (be) (8) a lucky accident,' Bettina answered. 'I (drive) (9) up Bridge Street slowly when suddenly these two men (come) (10) down it in a black car. I (not / know) (11) it but they were bank robbers. I was in the middle of the road, turning right, and they (go) (12) very fast. They (crash) (13) into my car and (start) (14) to shout at me. They (tell) (15) me to move my car immediately, but I didn't. While they (shout) (16) at me, I quietly (phone) (17) the police on my mobile phone. You see, I (not / think) (18) the crash was my fault. And I (not / like) (19) the way they were shouting at me.'

'(the robbers / still shout) (20) you when the police (arrive) (21)?' the presenter asked.

'No,' Bettina answered. 'They were out of the car and they (run) (22) down the hill with a bag of money from the bank. One of the police officers ran after them and (catch) (23) them.'

'What (the police / say) (24) to you?' the presenter asked Bettina.

'They (be) (25) angry with me because I (not / wear) (26) my seatbelt when the robbers crashed into my car.'

• Infinitive of purpose and so as not to

REMEMBER

Infinitive of purpose

We can express a purpose by using the infinitive with to. This is called the infinitive of purpose.
I'll phone Jim to invite him to dinner. She went to the market to do some shopping.

so as not to

We can express a negative purpose with so as not to.

We'd better take a taxi so as not to be late. Can we keep this a secret so as not to upset Jane?

10 Join these sentences using the infinitive of purpose or so as not to.

Example He always arrives early. He has to open up the office.
He always arrives early to open up the office.

1 He turned on the TV. He wanted to watch the news.

2 She is on a diet. She doesn't want to put on weight.

3 We are saving money. We want to go abroad this summer.

4 She looked at the ground. She didn't want to start laughing.

5 I'm going to the hospital. I want to give my aunt some chocolates.

6 Can you take your shoes off? Then you won't make a noise.

7 Paul went to Canada. He wanted to visit his relatives.

8 My mother needs some flour and eggs. She wants to make a cake.

9 Let's leave early. Then we won't arrive in the dark.

10 I'm going to bed now. Then I won't be tired in the morning.

- so that, so that ... not

REMEMBER

so that, so that ... not

We can use the infinitive of purpose and so as not to only when the subject of the main clause and the subject of the clause of purpose are the same:

She's saving up. She wants to buy a boat. = She's saving up to buy a boat.

I agreed. I didn't want to upset her. = I agreed so as not to upset her.

We can use so that when the subject of the main clause and the subject of the clause of purpose are the same ...

I'm washing the walls today. Then I can paint the room tomorrow.

I'm washing the walls today so that I can paint the room tomorrow.

... and when they are different:

I'm painting the room white. It will look bigger.

I'm painting the room white so that it will look bigger.

The negative of so that is so that ... not:

I water the garden every day. That way, the plants don't die.

I water the garden every day so that the plants don't die.

We often use can, can't, will, won't in sentences with so that:

I'm buying a computer so that I can work at home.

Film stars often wear sunglasses so that nobody will recognise them.

11 Rewrite the sentences using so that or so that ... not:

Example

The police have stopped the traffic. They want everyone to cross the street.

(can) The police have stopped the traffic so that everyone can cross the street...

- 1 He has taken his mobile phone with him. He wants me to call him when he's out.
- 2 He's building a high wall. He doesn't want children to get into his garden.
- 3 He is working hard. He wants to have the weekend free.
- 4 Julia has sent the children out because she wants to have a rest.
- 5 I'll draw a map for you. I don't want you to get lost.

• Infinitive of purpose, so as not to or so that, so that ... not 12 Match the pairs of sentences. Then join each pair using to or so as not to, if possible. If it is not possible, use so that or so that ... not.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| 1 I'm hiding. | a) He doesn't want to get sunburnt. |

Defining and non-defining relative clauses

- Defining relative clauses with who, which, where, that

REMEMBER

Defining relative clauses

Defining relative clauses give essential information.

We use who for people, which or that for things and where for places:

The girl who lives next door had a car accident yesterday.

Who took the CD which / that was on the table?

The shop where I work sells foreign newspapers.

- 13 Complete the sentences with who, which / that or where.

Examples I don't like people who tell lies.

Where's the money which / that was in my bag?

The club where we met is called Fizz.

- What's the name of the girl works at the cinema?
- The shop I buy most of my clothes is called Atlantic.

- Where are the cakes were on top of the fridge?
- Is there a place near here we can get a sandwich?
- She wants to buy the red dress is in the shop window.
- Here are some tapes will help you with your English.
- The beach we went last weekend was really fantastic.
- The girl came with me to John's party was called Nadia.
- Let's go to a restaurant we can sit outside.
- My favourite ice creams are the ones have nuts on top.
- What's the name of the actor starred in the Terminator film?
- I like ice cream has raspberry sauce and cream on top.
- Do you know anyone can help me with my Physics?
- I don't like clubs you have to wear really smart clothes.
- People don't tell the truth really annoy me.
- She wants to go to a beach she can windsurf.

• Non-defining relative clauses with who, which, where

REMEMBER

Non-defining relative clauses

Non-defining relative clauses give an extra bit of information.

We use who for people, which for things and where for places. We cannot use that.

There is a comma (,) at the beginning of a non-defining relative clause and a comma or a full stop at the end of it.

My mother, who loves films, goes to the cinema three times a week.

The London Eye, which is a huge ferris wheel, was built in 1999.

Rome, where I went last summer, is full of famous paintings.

14 Make one sentence from two. Put in commas.

Examples My aunt Nora still rides a bike. She is seventy-five.

My aunt Nora, who is seventy-five, still rides a bike.

The White House is in Washington. The President of the USA lives there.

The White House, where the President of the USA lives, is in Washington.

- 1 La Paz is the capital of Bolivia. It's the highest city in South America.
- 2 Nicole Kidman is from Australia. She is married to Tom Cruise.
.....
- 3 Hawaii is in the Pacific Ocean. It is part of the United States.
.....
- 4 Sylvester Stallone is a very rich man. He starred in the Rocky films.
.....
- 5 Wimbledon is in London. The Lawn Tennis Championships take place there.
.....
- 6 Titanic was a very sad film. It starred Leonardo DiCaprio.
.....
- 7 Palermo is a very interesting city. I studied Italian there last summer.
.....
- 8 My friend Leila wants to be a pop singer. She has a terrible voice.
.....
- 9 Kalkan is a beautiful fishing town in Turkey. Kerim was born there.
.....
- 10 Pandas live in the forests of China. They are very rare animals.
.....

• Defining and non-defining relative clauses

15 Complete the sentences with who, which / that or where. Put in commas where necessary.

Examples Give me the glasses which / that are on the top shelf.

Safiye who sits next to me in class who has problems with her eyes.

- 1 My cousin Rob is only eighteen already has a car of his own.
- 2 Liverpool my mother was born stands on the River Mersey.

• Defining and non-defining relative clauses

REMEMBER

Leaving out relative pronouns

When who, which or that is the object in a defining relative clause, we can leave it out:

I can't find the letter which / that I got yesterday. or: I can't find the letter I got yesterday.

Did you like the girl who(m) we met in the park? or: Did you like the girl we met in the park?

When who, which or that is the subject in a defining relative clause, we cannot leave it out:

Did you like the girl who talked to us in the park? (not ~~Did you like the girl talked to us in the park?~~)

We cannot leave out who or which in any non-defining relative clauses:

Barcelona, which I visited last summer, has fantastic cafés and clubs.

(not ~~Barcelona, I visited last summer, has fantastic cafés and clubs.~~)

Do not leave out where in any relative clauses:

The shop where I bought this poster is called Art Attack.

(not ~~The shop I bought this poster is called Art Attack.~~)

16 Make one sentence from two using a relative pronoun each time. If it is possible to omit the relative pronoun, write it in brackets.

Examples We had a teacher last year. She was great.

The teacher (who) we had last year was great.

Our local cinema is the most expensive in town. I don't like it.

Our local cinema, which I don't like, is the most expensive in town.

1 That's the strange man. We saw him outside the school.

2 He didn't see the thief. He took Pedro's wallet.

3 Can I have the tapes? I lent them to you last week.

4 Let's go to the new park. You can swim in the lake there.

5 Let's look at the photos. You got them last week.

6 He broke all the glasses. They were on the kitchen table.

7 The painter Picasso lived in France for many years. He was born in Spain.

8 War and Peace is a very long book. I read it last summer.

Mixed tense practice: future

• Present simple for future

REMEMBER

Present simple for future

We use the present simple when we talk about timetables and programmes:

The bus leaves Victoria Coach Station at 10.30 and arrives in Brighton at 12.30.

What time does the concert begin? It doesn't start until 8.30 p.m.

17 You are in the basketball team. You are asking your friend about the programme. Complete the questions and answers.

Example A: Where do we meet?

B: We meet in front of the school.

Basketball A Team against New Haven High School Saturday 2nd February

7.45 a.m. Meet in front of the school.

(Please do NOT be late!!)

8.00 a.m. Leave by bus.

9.15 a.m. Arrive at New Haven High School.

9.30 a.m. Get changed in the Junior Changing Room (Room 442).

10.00 a.m. The game starts.

12.30 p.m. Have lunch in New Haven school refectory.

2.00 p.m. The bus leaves New Haven High School.

Laura McDermot (Captain)

1 A:

B: At 7.45 a.m.

2 A: at New Haven High School

B: We arrive at 9.15 a.m.

3 A:

B: At 9.30 a.m.

4 A: Where changed?

B: It's the Junior Changing Room.

5 A: What time

B: It starts at 10 o'clock.

6 A: lunch?

B: in the school refectory

A: What time?

B: at 2.00 p.m.

• Present continuous and will / won't for future

REMEMBER

Present continuous

We use the present continuous to talk about future arrangements and planned actions.

We often use time phrases with this tense:

We're going to Paris next month.

She isn't coming to lunch this week.

Are you wearing your new dress to Silvia's party on Sunday?

will / won't

We use will / won't

1 for predictions: They'll probably be back by ten thirty. It won't be easy to mend the tent.

2 for sudden decisions: I'll phone the Tourist Information Office.

3 for offers, promises, threats: I'll get you a glass of water. I won't do it again.

I won't forget this.

18 Put the verbs into the present continuous or future with will.

Example Come on! We (give) will give you a lift home.

- 1 Stephanie (meet) her boyfriend at eight o'clock.
- 2 It's only a little injection. It (not / hurt) much.
- 3 This is Mariah Carey's best single. It (go) straight to the top.
- 4 That homework looks difficult. I (help) you with it.
- 5 I (play) tennis with Lucy on Saturday.
- 6 Roxanne phoned. There is a problem, so she (not / come) tonight.
- 7 Sadly, I think our team (not / win) tomorrow's match.
- 8 Have you heard the news about Mike? He (go) on holiday with Cathy and her parents.
- 9 I think I (take) the bus to school today.
- 10 Phil (not / eat) with us tonight. He (go) to Annie's.
- 11 It (not / be) cold tonight. You (not / need) a sweater.
- 12 We (have) a little party on the 16th. Would you like to come?
- 13 You are not working hard enough. You (not / pass) the exam.
- 14 I'm sure she (not / lend) me her bike.

- Present simple, present continuous, will and going to for future

REMEMBER

We can use will / won't for giving opinions after the verbs be sure, think, know and hope:

I'm sure Judy's party will be fun.

How long do you think you'll stay at the party?

We use going to when we talk about our intentions:

B: I know. I'm going to buy some when I go to the supermarket.

We also use going to for predictions when we can see from the situation now what is about to happen:

John is wearing his white shorts. He's going to play tennis.

19 Match the correct response to each sentence and write it underneath.

- 1 When are you getting married?

d) Some time in September.

- 2 What time does this shop close today?

.....

- 3 The concert is going to be great.

.....

- 4 There won't be enough time for questions this afternoon.

.....

- 5 Are you going to be all right by yourself?

.....

- 6 My friends are going to start a rock band.

.....

- 7 Remember – your appointment is at 2.15 p.m.

.....

- a) Oh, really. What are they going to call it?
 b) At 6.00, Sir.
 c) Yes, of course I am. Thanks for all your help.
 d) Some time in September.
 e) Don't worry. I'll be there on time.
 f) I know. But will there be any tickets left?
 g) That's a pity.

20 Circle the correct verb form and use it to write each sentence correctly.

Example The next train to Oxford is leaving / leaves from Platform 12 at 16.32.

The next train to Oxford leaves from Platform 12 at 16.32.

1 I think it is snowing / is going to snow tomorrow.

2 You can go out to the shops. I am answering / will answer the phone for you.

3 I'm so happy. My brother is coming / will come home.

4 Does / Will your plane leave from Heathrow Airport or Gatwick Airport?

5 Bill isn't going to / doesn't like that present. Don't give it to him.

6 I think they'll win / are winning the next game.

7 She starts her course on Monday. She isn't going to find / isn't finding it easy.

8 Leave your car with me. I try / will try to fix it.

9 You are enjoying / are going to enjoy the trip at the weekend.

10 Do you have / Are you having a party on Friday?

13 This car sounds terrible. It isn't going to / doesn't get there.

14 What time does the film begin / is the film beginning?

15 I'm looking forward to university. I'm going to make / 'm making lots of new friends.

- Comparatives and superlatives of adjectives and adverbs

REMEMBER

Comparative and superlative of adjectives and adverbs

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative	Adverb	Comparative	Superlative long	longer	(the) longest	fast	faster	(the) fastest nice	nicer	(the) nicest	hard	harder	(the) hardest big	bigger	(the) biggest	carefully	more carefully	(the) most carefully funny	funnier	(the) funniest	well	better	(the) best important	more important	(the) most important	badly	worse	(the) worst good	better	(the) best	much	more	(the) most bad	worse	(the) worst	little	less	(the) least far	further	(the) furthest

21 Complete the sentences with as + adjective, adverb, or the comparative or superlative form.

Dear Nadia

My holiday job this summer is at the zoo. It's the strangest (strange) work I've ever done. The good thing about the job is that the pay is (good) (1) than most other jobs. The bad thing is that I have to get up much (early) (2) than everyone else in my family – at four in the morning, in fact! Also the work is (tiring) (3) than any other job I've done.

Yesterday I cleaned out the lions' cage. It didn't smell (bad) (4) as the wolves' cage but it was (frightening) (5) thing I've ever done.

The monkeys are (funny) (6) and (intelligent) (7) of all the animals. One of the baby monkeys is (friendly) (8) than the others. I usually feed him first because he waits for his food (patiently) (9) than the other monkeys.

The penguins can be almost (interesting) (10) to watch as the monkeys. They're strange birds. They can't fly but they swim almost (well) (11) as fish. I think the penguins eat their food (fast) (12) of all the animals. The fish disappears down their throats in seconds! They remind me of my brother.

Write to me soon.

Lots of love,

Patsy

• Comparison of adjectives and adverbs with intensifiers

REMEMBER

much and far

To make a comparative adjective or adverb stronger, we can use either much or far as an intensifier. They mean the same thing.

Leila is a far better singer than Sylvia.

These jeans are much more expensive than the ones in the last shop.

Steve drives much faster than Richard.

She speaks far more clearly than Jim.

a bit

a bit is a weaker intensifier than much and far:

The weather's a bit better today.

I'm afraid he's feeling a bit worse today.

22 Make comparisons with much or a bit + comparative adjective or adverb. Use the present tense of the verb.

Examples Today (0° C) / yesterday (14° C) – be / cold

Today is much colder than yesterday.

Stan (150 kph) / Ricky (147 kph) – drive / fast

Stan drives a bit faster than Ricky.

2 Your car (180 kph) / my car (100 kph) – go / fast

3 Andrea (6 a.m.) / Serena (6.15 a.m.) – get up / early

4 The silver bracelet (£30) / the gold bracelet (£180) – be / cheap

5 Jim (28 km from York) / Mick (25 km from York) – live / far from York

6 Your watch (£50) / Judy's watch (£48) – be / expensive

7 Martha (11 p.m.) / Annabel (10.45 p.m.) – go to bed / late

8 Titanic (10 prizes) / The Bad Bird (0 prizes) – be / a successful film

• Comparison of adjectives with almost, just and not as ... as

REMEMBER

almost and just

To make a comparison with as... as more precise, we can use almost or just:

He's almost as tall as his father. She is just as clever as her sister.

23 Make comparisons with almost, just or not as ... as.

Examples Today (30° C) / yesterday (30° C) (hot) Today is just as hot as yesterday.
 Today (29° C) / yesterday (30° C) (hot) Today is almost as hot as yesterday.
 Today (20° C) / yesterday (30° C) (hot) Today isn't as hot as yesterday.

• Present perfect continuous with for and since

for

We use for + a period of time:

I've been reading this for three hours / for three days / for three weeks.

We do not use for with time phrases containing the word all, e.g. all morning, all day, all week, all month, all year. For example: I've been thinking about you all day.

since

We use since + the start of the period:

I've been reading this since 9 o'clock / since Monday / since January 12th.

27 Write answers using the present perfect continuous and for or since where necessary.

Example A: Why are you tired? (run / two hours)

37 Circle the correct prepositions and write them in the gaps.

Dear Patrick

I am meeting your brother Alan on / in / on Wednesday. I haven't seen him for / since (1) three years. We used to be good friends at / during (2) our time at college. But from / since (3) your big eighteenth birthday party we haven't even spoken on the phone. What did Alan do from / after (4) college? I know he went to Japan in / on (5) 1999. Oh, well; I suppose I can wait to / until (6) Wednesday to find out.

Can you help me with my computer? I have to finish this report by / until (7) the end of the month, and the computer is giving me trouble. If I use it for / during (8) more than an hour, it goes wrong. Can you come round and look at it until / before (9) the weekend? Phone me and we'll talk about it. But please don't phone during / after (10) eleven o'clock as I go to bed early these days.

Yours

Rebecca

• Question tags with modals: positive statement, negative tag

REMEMBER

Positive statement, negative tag

We can use question tags with modals to check information.

With positive statements, we use negative tags.

We expect the answer Yes when we use negative tags.

We can start now, can't we? (Yes, we can.)

It could be a problem, couldn't it? (Yes, it could.)

It should be easy, shouldn't it? (Yes, it should.)

They must go now, mustn't they? (Yes, they must.)

57 Complete the questions with the correct tags.

- 17 They've got to eat more fruit,
- 18 Melina should get some advice,
- 19 He can buy coffee at the village shop,
- 20 You ought to look where you're going,

• Question tags with modals: negative statement, positive tag

REMEMBER

Negative statement, positive tag

With negative statements, we use positive tags.

We expect the answer No when we use a positive tag.

You can't repair it, can you? (No, I can't.)

They couldn't open it, could they? (No, they couldn't.)

She shouldn't wear jeans to work, should she? (No, she shouldn't.)

We mustn't make a noise, must we? (No, we mustn't.)

58 Complete the questions with the correct tags and write the answers.

Example A: We mustn't make a noise, must we?

B: No, we mustn't.

1 A: She shouldn't eat so much,

B:

2 A: They can't speak Arabic,

h) I quite agree. She's much prettier without it.

• Echo questions with modals: can, could, should, must

REMEMBER

Echo questions with modals

We use echo questions to show interest or surprise.

If the statement is positive, the echo question is positive:

A: We can take the number 33 bus.

B: Can we?

A: You could borrow my bike, if you like.

B: Could I?

A: She must hurry.

B: Must she?

If the statement is negative, the echo question is negative:

A: He can't do it.

B: Can't he?

A: They shouldn't talk to him.

B: Shouldn't they?

A: We mustn't be late.

B: Mustn't we?

61 Put the words in the correct order to make sentences. Then write echo questions for each one.

Example the others / cinema / outside / would / the / for / we

A: We should wait for the others he cinema

- The passive: present simple and past simple

REMEMBER

The passive: present simple and past simple

We use the passive when

1 we want to focus on an action, not who or what did it:

The classrooms are cleaned every day.

Music isn't taught at this school.

2 when we don't want to take responsibility for something or don't know who did something:

The window was broken last night.

The rooms weren't cleaned yesterday.

If we want to say who or what is responsible for an action, we use by and the agent:

These biscuits were made by a friend of mine.

The photocopier wasn't turned off by the office staff.

Who was writing invented by?

65 Complete the sentences with a verb from the box in the positive form of the present simple or past simple passive.

arrest	control	ask	fix	cultivate	invent	lock	make give	play	serve	write

Examples This book was written in 1954.

The gates are locked at midnight.

- 1 He a list of instructions this morning.

10 You haven't tidied your room.

11 You haven't taken your books back to the library.

12 You haven't watered the plants.

• Modals will, should, must, can and could + passive infinitive

REMEMBER

Modals will, should, must, can and could + passive infinitive

We can use the passive infinitive after modal verbs. The passive infinitive is formed with be + past participle.

It won't be repaired before Wednesday.

The police should be informed.

These boxes must be moved.

Our tickets couldn't be exchanged.

- 69 Use the modal + the passive infinitive of the verb in brackets to complete each sentence.

I (not / allow) (5) to travel on the bus in case all the smoke (make) (6) my cough even worse.'

- Negative questions: showing surprise

REMEMBER

Negative questions: showing surprise

We can use negative questions to show surprise:

Haven't you had your supper yet? It's 11 p.m.

Sometimes the speaker doesn't expect an answer:

Isn't it cold today!

Note

- Note the meaning of the answers to negative questions:

Didn't you enjoy the concert?

Yes. (= Yes, I did enjoy it.)

No. (= No, I didn't enjoy it.)

74 Answer each statement with a negative question.

Example

A: I won't see you again until Monday.

B: Why not? (you / not / come / to Cindy's party tonight / ?)

Why not? Aren't you coming to Cindy's party tonight?

Articles

• The indefinite article: a / an

REMEMBER

The indefinite article: a / an

We use a or an

1 with countable nouns to indicate one of them:

She's got two sisters and a brother.

2 with professions:

He is a journalist.

She is a dentist.

BUT: I need to go to the dentist. (There is only one dentist that I go to.)

3 when we talk about cost or speed or how often something happens:

It costs £2.20 a kilo. (= for one kilo)

She drove at 140 kph. (= in one hour)

He works nine hours a day. (= in one day)

He cleans it once a week. (= in one week)

4 with some numbers to mean one:

a hundred, a thousand

78 An indefinite article is missing at least once in every line. Write a / an in the correct places.

Example Our last house had ^abig garden with ^aswimming pool and apple trees.

1 My mother has new job. She is assistant in supermarket in Barcelona.

2 There are thousand metres in kilometre.

3 He's so dirty. He only washes his hair once month.

4 I've got problem. I need to find bank where I can change money.

5 They cycled hundred and fifty kilometres in three days.

6 They say fruit is good for you. Have apple or orange.

7 Can I have cup of coffee, please, and glass of water?

8 We need to take lighter or matches on this trip.

9 You have lovely face, beautiful eyes and fantastic hair.

0 You are driving at hundred and fifty kilometres hour. Please slow down!

1 Where did you have lunch? Did you go to restaurant?

2 These carrots are fifty pence kilo.

3 When you were on holiday did you stay at nice hotel?

4 How much does he get paid week?

5 The speed limit in towns is fifty kilometres hour.

- The definite article: the

REMEMBER

We use the:

1a when we talk about a known object:

I must go to the bank. (The speaker and listener both know which bank it is.)

BUT: Is there a bank near here? (The speaker doesn't know anything about the bank.)

1b when we talk about particular things or people:

The music in that film was awful.

BUT: I love classical music. (= in general)

1c when only one object exists:

The earth, the sun, the moon, the sky, the sea, the ground, the country.

BUT We say space: The rocket is travelling through space.

Turn on the light. (There is only one in the room.)

2 when a word is used a second time:

I bought a newspaper and a magazine but I left the magazine in the shop.

3a with plural names of people and places:

the Walkers (= the Walker family), the United States, the Lakes, the islands, the Alps, the Andes

BUT: Rebecca Walker, Africa, Japan, Cyprus, Mount Everest

3b with some nationality adjectives to mean the people of that country:

The French, the Chinese, the Spanish, the Italians, the Germans, the Turks, the Scots

4 with the names of oceans, seas, rivers, deserts and regions:

the Atlantic Ocean, the Mediterranean Sea, the Nile, the Sahara, the north of Spain

Causative have

• Causative have: present tense

REMEMBER

Causative have: present tense

We use causative have when we arrange for someone else to do something for us:

I never have my hair cut at the hairdresser's. I always cut it myself.

We use causative have with a past participle:

I always have my sweaters dry-cleaned. I never wash them.

Note

- We can replace have by get in more informal speech:

I need to get my eyes tested.

83 Match the prompts then write pairs of sentences with get and have, like the sentences in the example.

First conditional

REMEMBER

First conditional

We form conditional sentences with if or unless. In first conditional sentences the verb in the if / unless clause is in the present simple tense.

In the main clause, we can use the future simple tense (will), the present continuous with future reference, going to, can, might or an imperative.

86 Match each if clause to a main clause and write the sentences in full.

- 1 If you (not / work) harder
- 2 If I (go) past that new cake shop
- 3 If Steve (not / sell) his car first
- 4 If Carly (lend) me her bike

10 she (tell) you anything about me and Mick, (not / believe) a word!

11 (not / ask) me for help / you (not / understand) your Chemistry homework

• Second conditional

REMEMBER

Second conditional

We use the second conditional to talk about unreal or unlikely situations, or to give advice. In the if clause of a second conditional sentence, we use if + past simple. In the main clause we use 'd, would(n't) or could(n't).

Note

- If I were you is more common than If I was you.

88 Write sentences in the second conditional, adding commas where necessary.

Example If I (be) you / I (not dive) off that rock.

If I were you, I wouldn't dive off that rock.

1 (she / not / mind) / if we (borrow) this tape for a day.

2 If I (be) you / I (not / go) out with him.

3 What (you / do) / if you (win) £1 million in the lottery?

Lion: 1b, 2c, 3a, 4a, 5c, 6b, 7c.
Mouse: 1a, 2a, 3c, 4c, 5a, 6c, 7a.

• Past perfect simple

REMEMBER

Past perfect simple

We form the past perfect simple with had + the past participle.

Positive

I had started (I'd started)

She / He had started (She'd / He'd started)

Negative

I had not finished (I hadn't finished)

She / He had not finished (She / He hadn't finished)

Questions

Had I left?

Had she / he left?

Short answers

Yes, you had. / No, you hadn't.

Yes, she / he had. / No, she / he hadn't.

We use the past perfect simple tense to describe the first of two events in the past:

When we arrived at the party, he had left.

(= He left first, then we arrived at the party.)

Note

- The past perfect simple of have is had had / 'd had:

We'd had an argument just before they arrived.

90 Complete the sentences with a verb from the box in the past perfect simple, positive or negative.

finish play eat forget receive shut reserve see fly

Example They did the washing up when everyone had finished eating.

- 1 They couldn't get a room because they on 11 There was paint all over the floor. (He / knock / over the paintpot)

12 He failed his driving test. (He / not / learn / the highway code)

13 She got her pilot's licence. (She / spend / 250 hours flying)

14 The teacher was annoyed. (Chloe / not / do / her homework)

• Past perfect simple: positive, negative and questions

REMEMBER

Past perfect forms of go

There are two past perfect forms of go: had gone and had been.

We use had been when the person had made a visit and come back:

Andrea had three heavy plastic bags in her hands. She had been to the supermarket.

We use had gone when the person had gone and not returned:

I went to Josie's house but she wasn't there. She had gone to the cinema.

92 Put the verbs in the correct form of the past perfect.

A

Kate: When I got back from school today, I found my mother climbing through the bedroom window.

Anna: (she / lose) Had she lost her keys?

Kate: Yes, she had. She (leave) (1) them somewhere at the airport.

Anna: At the airport?

Kate: Yes, she had to collect my sister, Linda, from the airport this morning.

Anna: Where (Linda / go) (2)?

Kate: She (be) (3) on holiday in India.

Anna: Wow! How long (she / spend) (4) there?

Kate: Two months. It wasn't her first visit. She (go) (5) there before.

Anna: Did she get you anything nice in India?

Kate: Yes, she did. A lovely scarf. Come and I'll show you.

B

Zoe: I went back to Ditchling last weekend.

Ben: When (you / last / go) (1) there?

Zoe: Twelve years ago!

Ben: (it / change) (2) a lot?

Zoe: Yes, it had. They (knock) (3) down my parents' old house and they (build) (4) a supermarket instead. It was horrible!

• Past perfect simple with after, before, as soon as, when

REMEMBER

Past perfect simple and past simple

We can use the past perfect simple and the past simple in the same sentence with after, before, as soon as and when. We use the past perfect simple for the event which happened first and the past simple for the event which happened second.

As soon as we'd done our last exam, we all went out to a club.

93 In each sentence put one verb in the past simple and one in the past perfect.

Example After I (buy) my ticket, I (get) on the train to Stansted.

After I'd bought my ticket, I got on the train to Stansted.

- 1 As soon as I (sit) down, the ticket inspector (ask) to see my ticket.
- 2 When I (show) him my ticket, I (get) out my book.
- 3 Before I (read) one page, my mobile phone (ring).
- 4 I (just / finish) talking on the mobile when an annoying child (spill) lemonade all over my knee.
- 5 After I (clean) up the mess, the same child (drop) a piece of chocolate cake on my book.
- 6 When I (get) all the cake off my book, I (decide) to move to another seat.
- 7 I (just / move) to a nice quiet seat when the inspector (come) round again.
- 8 After he (look at) my ticket, he (tell) me to move back to my old seat.
- 9 When he (hear) my story about the annoying child, he (say) it was OK for me to stay in my new seat.
- 10 As soon as I (pick up) my book again, the train (arrive) at Stansted.

- Time clauses with when, as soon as, before, after, until

REMEMBER

Sequence of tenses

We use the present simple in time clauses to talk about the future.

future simple / going to

I'll phone you

I'm going to phone you time marker

as soon as

after present simple

she arrives.

(not I'll phone you when she will arrive.) until is similar:

future simple / going to

We'll wait

We're going to wait

We won't go out

We aren't going to go out

present simple

you arrive.

(wait until you will arrive.)

94 Put the verbs into the future simple or present simple.

Example I (phone) you when I (get back) from Paris.

I'll phone you when I get back from Paris.

1 He (not / buy) it until you (give) him the money.

2 When Dad (find out) about this, there*(be) trouble.

3 I (turn) the gas off as soon as the water (boil).

• after and before + present participle

REMEMBER

after and before + present participle

In time clauses with after and before, we can use the present participle if the subject of both clauses is the same:

I talked to Mona. Then I changed my mind.

After talking to Mona, I changed my mind.

First she did the washing up. Then she went out.

Before going out, she did the washing up.

96 Put the verbs in the past simple. Then join the pairs of sentences with after + present participle.

Example I (leave) left school. I (get) got a job.

After leaving school I got a job.

1 I (save) up some money. I (pay) for driving lessons

2 I (take) thirty lessons. I (go) for my driving test

3 I (pass) my test first time. I (buy) a car.

4 I (drive) to work every day for a year. I (get) fed up with the traffic.

5 I (put) an advert in the paper. I (sell) my car

6 I (sell) my car. I (buy) a motorbike.

7 I (fall off) the bike several times. I (give) it my mum.

8 I (buy) a horse. I (give) up all other forms of transport!

• after and before

97 Write Before or After in the first gap in each sentence. Then fill in the verbs in the correct forms.

Example Before (go) going to bed, I (lock) locked the door.

- 1 (play) football for hours, they (feel) hungry and tired.
- 2 (go) to bed, I (clean) my teeth and (wash) my face.
- 3 (start) work in the kitchen, the cook always (wash) his hands.
- 4 (park) the car, I (turn) the engine off and (get) out.
- 5 (enter) the interview room, I (comb) my hair.

98 Match the sentence halves then write full sentences with should / shouldn't and after / before + present participle.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--|
| 1 Bring the keys to reception | a) after you drive through water. |

• so and because

REMEMBER

We can join two sentences with the conjunction so to show the result:

It was very cold. I shut the window

It was very cold so I shut the window.

We can join two sentences with the conjunction because to show the reason:

I shut the window because it was very cold.

Because it was very cold, I shut the window.

We can also show the reason with the phrase: That's why. It must be at the beginning of a sentence.

It was very cold. That's why I shut the window.

99 Complete the sentences with so or because.

Example The weather was horrible so we stayed inside.

- 1 I had to walk to school my bike was broken.
- 2 I couldn't get any money all the banks were closed.
- 3 He didn't use enough sugar in the dessert it tasted horrible
- 4 She didn't want to go to school she pretended to be ill.
- 5 The food wasn't very nice there wasn't enough salt in it.
- 6 It was very dark in the room I turned on the lights.

100 Rewrite the pairs of sentences using because or That's why.

Example I didn't go on holiday. I didn't have any money. (That's why)

I didn't have any money. That's why I didn't go on holiday.

- 1 I didn't go to the party. I didn't feel well. (That's why)

- 2 We couldn't get tickets. We didn't go to the concert. (because)
.....
- 3 The postman couldn't get into the building. The door was locked. (That's why)
.....
- 4 There was bad fog. The plane didn't take off. (That's why)
.....
- 5 The police stopped them. They were driving very fast. (because)
.....

too much, too many and not enough too much and too many

REMEMBER

We use too much with uncountable nouns and too many with plural countable nouns:

There was too much violence in that film.

There were too many violent scenes.

101 In each sentence write the verb in the correct form in the first gap and too much or too many in the second gap.

Example Valerie ate nearly a kilo of ice cream last night and she felt very sick.

She ate (eat) too much ice cream.

- 1 There are 60 students in the class so we don't get much attention from the teacher. There (be) students in the class.
- 2 There were fifty sandwiches and five big cakes but only seven people at the picnic. There (be) food for seven people.
- 3 Jack works from seven in the morning until eleven at night even at the weekends. He really (do) work.
- 4 She packed six skirts for a weekend in the country. She only wore one skirt. She (take) skirts with her.
- 5 I always write letters on the computer because it's quicker. In my opinion, it (take) time to write letters by hand.
- 6 I couldn't decide which shirt to buy. There (be) colours to choose from.

102 Complete the sentences with too much or too many.

I've just come to live in London but I don't like it very much because there is too much noise. There is also (1) traffic and (2) pollution. There are (3) people everywhere and (4) shops, and there's (5) rain. I'm thinking of going back to my village in Sicily. But there are (6) tourists there and (7) people on the beaches in the summer. Ah well, there's always (8) of something! I guess I'll never be satisfied.

• too much, too many and not enough

not enough

We can use not enough with uncountable nouns or plural countable nouns.

There wasn't enough food at the party so I came home hungry.

He didn't answer the last question because he didn't have enough time.

There weren't enough seats so I had to stand.

103 Write the verbs in the correct form. Complete the sentences with enough + the correct noun from the box.

copies bedrooms money good music space teeth time

Example I couldn't go to the cinema because I (have) didn't have enough money.

- 1 He didn't finish the exam because he (have)
- 2 The party was bad because there (be)
- 3 I hit the car in front when I was parking because there (be)
- 4 We're moving house because this one (have)
- 5 The baby can't eat real food yet because he (have)
- 6 He couldn't give everyone a photo because he (have)

104 Selim saw the doctor about his health problems. Use too much, too many and not enough to write what the doctor said.

Examples (get) fresh air You aren't getting enough fresh air.
(do) work You're doing too much work.

- 1 (eat) fresh fruit and vegetables
- 2 (drink) coffee
- 3 (eat) cakes and sweet things
- 4 (take) exercise
- 5 (get) sleep
- 6 (spend) time relaxing
- 7 (spend) time in your office
- 8 (eat) oil and fat

Third conditional

Third conditional

REMEMBER

Third conditional

We use the third conditional to talk about unreal situations in the past.

If + past perfect tense, would have, 'd have, might have or could have

+ past participle

1 If I'd been on that plane,

I'd have died in the crash.

2 If he hadn't slowed down,

he could have hit the little girl.

3 If you'd crashed their new car, what would your parents have said?

1 = But I wasn't on the plane so I didn't die in the crash.

2 = But he did slow down so he didn't hit the little girl.

3 = But you didn't crash it so they didn't say anything.

105 Put the verbs in the correct form to make sentences in the third conditional with would / wouldn't have.

Example If I (be) more careful / this (not / happen)

If I'd been more careful, this wouldn't have happened.

1 If you (ask) me, I (lend) you some money.

2 What (she / do) if we (take) her car without asking?

3 If I (know) you were in hospital, I (bring) you some flowers.

4 She (not / marry) him if she (know) about his past.

5 (you / dance) with him if he (ask) you?

6 They (go) to the party if they (be able) to find a babysitter.

7 I (not / eat) at that restaurant if I (know) about the dirty kitchen.

8 She (not / meet) Darek if she (not / go) to Poland.

• Third conditional

106 Match the sentence halves. Then write sentences in the third conditional

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1 He (not / miss) the train | a) if I (know) about the watersnakes |
| 2 I (be) sick | b) if I (eat) any more. |
| 3 I (not / swim) there | c) we (not / get) lost. |
| 4 Do you think he (enjoy) the party | d) if he (not / get up) so late. |
| 5 If we (buy) a good map | e) if he (have) better eyesight. |
| 6 My father (be) a pilot | f) if he (come)? |

- 1 d) He wouldn't have missed the train if he hadn't got up so late.
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6

107 Complete the second sentence in the third conditional so that it means the same as the first sentence.

Example He didn't wear gloves so his hands got cold.
 If he'd worn gloves his hands wouldn't have got cold. or
 His hands wouldn't have got cold if he'd worn gloves.

- 1 We had our mobile phone so we were able to call the police.
 If we hadn't
- 2 She left the cinema because the film was boring.
 She wouldn't
- 3 She didn't set her clock so she missed the train.
 If she had
- 4 He didn't get better because he didn't take the medicine.
 If he had
- 5 You drove too fast and that's why we crashed.
 If you hadn't

• Third conditional

108 Put the verbs in the correct form to make sentences in the third conditional.

Lucy: That evening at the gym changed my life forever.

Kate: What do you mean?

Lucy: Well, I got back from the gym really late. I was very tired and I forgot to set my clock. I needed to get up early to go to an interview at Sussex University. I wanted a place there to study French and Spanish.

Kate: So?

Lucy: Well, if I (not / be) hadn't been so tired, I (not / forget) wouldn't have forgotten to set my alarm. And if I (set) (1) my alarm I (wake up) (2) at six in the morning, as planned. Instead, I woke up at seven-thirty. If I (wake up) (3) at six, I (not / miss)
 (4) the eight o'clock train to Brighton.
 Instead I had to get the nine o'clock train. If I (not / travel)
 (5) on the nine o'clock train, I (not / meet) (6) Ricardo.

Kate: Yes?

Lucy: Well, don't you see? If I (not / marry) (7)
 Ricardo, I (not go) (8) to live in Argentina. If I (not / move) (9) to Argentina, I (not / get) (10) a job on Argentinian TV. If I (not / become) (11) a presenter on TV, the film director Miguel Almiraz (not / notice)
 (12) me. If Almiraz (not / notice)
 (13) me, I (never / become)
 (14) a professional actress. If I (not / become) (15) an actress, I probably (become) (16) a translator or a teacher.
 So you see, exercise is very important. Go to the gym. It could change your life forever!

Kate: Well, erm ... yes. I suppose you're right.

• First, second and third conditional

109 Match the sentence halves then write the sentences in full.

- | | |
|------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 1 If it rains tomorrow, | a) I wouldn't buy that dress. |
| 2 If I were you, | b) if you won £1,000? |
| 3 If she hadn't jumped back, | c) if he'd seen us reading his letter |
| 4 You shouldn't eat sweets | d) if you want good teeth. |
| 5 It would have been awful | e) the car would have hit her. |
| 6 What would you buy first | f) we won't go to the beach. |

1 f) If it rains tomorrow, we won't go to the beach.

110 Use the prompts to complete the sentences using the correct conditionals.

Example Which famous person would you like to meet (if you / can choose anyone in the world?) if you could choose anyone in the world?

1 If I were you, (I / phone / him tonight)

2 What would you have done if (our car / break down at the top of that mountain?)

3 If you promise not to repeat it, (I / tell you a really interesting secret)

.....

4 If you hadn't rescued me in the boat, (I / probably / drown)

5 I won't help Shona with her homework if (she / not / lend me her bike)

6 What would you do if (you / find a wallet containing £100?)

.....

7 I wish / If only + past perfect

• I wish + past perfect

REMEMBER

I wish + past perfect

We use I wish + past perfect to express regret about the past:

I wish I'd learnt more vocabulary before the test. (=Then I wouldn't have failed.)

I wish I hadn't gone to bed so late before my exam. (=Then I wouldn't have failed.)

I wish you'd told me about your problems. (= Then I could have helped you.)

I wish you hadn't torn my silk shirt. (= Then I could have worn it.)

111 Read Marina's reasons for her team losing a basketball game.

Write sentences with I wish + past perfect.

WHY WE LOST THE GAME AGAINST BRIGHTON COLLEGE

- 1 We changed our captain just two weeks before the game.
- 2 Our star player, Nina, has given up basketball.
- 3 We didn't train hard enough in the week before the game.
- 4 We had a big party the night before the game.
- 5 Sandy injured her knee and was unable to play.
- 6 Tara didn't pass me the ball.
- 7 Nadia fell over during the game.
- 8 We didn't bring our first-aid things with us.
- 9 I broke my glasses during the game.
- 10 I didn't remember to bring a spare pair of glasses.
- 11 Carol didn't listen to the referee.

- 1 I wish we hadn't changed our captain just two weeks before the game.

• If only + past perfect

REMEMBER

If only + past perfect

We use If only + past perfect to express regret about the past. It means the same as I wish + past perfect.

If only I'd learnt more vocabulary before the test. (=Then I wouldn't have failed.)

If only I hadn't gone to bed so late before my exam. (=Then I wouldn't have failed.)

112 What are these people thinking or saying? Write sentences with If only or I wish + past perfect.

Example

If only I hadn't stolen the money.

If only / not steal the money

4 If only / stay with the group

1 I wish / not come

5 If only / bring my mobile phone

2 I wish / not wear these shoes

6 I wish / remember the beach umbrella

3 If only / slow down at the corner

7 I wish / never give him my number

• I wish / If only + past perfect

.....

- so, such a / an in exclamations

REMEMBER

so + adjective / adverb, such a / an + noun

We can make exclamations using so with an adjective or adverb:

You're so good at music!

She works so hard!

With a singular noun or adjective + singular countable noun, we use such a / an:

He's such an idiot!

She's such an amazing cook!

With plural or uncountable nouns, we use such:

They're such idiots!

They're such nice people!

We had such delicious food!

119 Make exclamations with so, such or such a / an. Put the verbs in the present simple or past simple.

Examples We (have) / amazing holiday!

- 9 We (go) to / amazing party on New Year's Eve.
- 10 He (drive) / fast last night.

• so + adjective / adverb ... that, such a / an + noun ... that

REMEMBER

We can make result clauses using so and such with or without that:

The film was so boring (that) I fell asleep in the middle.

He walked so fast (that) I couldn't keep up with him.

It was such a boring film (that) I fell asleep in the middle.

He was such a fast walker (that) I couldn't keep up with him.

Note

such can also be followed by a plural noun or an uncountable noun. In this case, there is no indefinite article (a / an).

That director makes such boring films that nobody goes to see them any more.

He was talking such rubbish that nobody listened to him.

20 Fill the blanks with so, such a / an or such.

Reported speech

• Reported commands and requests

REMEMBER

Reported commands and requests

When we report commands and requests we use the verbs tell, ask and want + an object + the infinitive.

The pronouns and possessive adjectives may need to change.

Direct speech

'Sit down!' he said.

'Don't laugh at me, Jim,' she said.

'Could you get your book out, Sue?' he said.

Reported speech

He told me to sit down.

She told Jim not to laugh at her.

He asked Sue to get her book out.

122 Write the teacher's commands in reported speech using the verb tell.

Example 'Stop talking!' The teacher told us to stop talking.

1 'Put your books away.'

2 'Write your names on your test papers.'

3 'Read the instructions carefully.'

4 'Write the answers in pencil.'

5 'Don't use pens.'

6 'Stop writing at eleven o'clock.'

7 'Don't look at your friends' answers.'

8 'Don't talk at any time during the test.'

9 'Don't leave the room without asking.'

10 'Don't eat or drink in this room.'

• Reported commands and requests

123 Match the requests with the sentence beginnings. Then complete each sentence with the correct reported request.

- 1 e) I wanted an early night so I told Zoe not to phone after ten o'clock.
- 2 We both looked amazing so I asked
- 3 I felt weak and tired so I asked
- 4 I couldn't think of the answer so I asked
- 5 It was an important secret so I told
- 6 My parents were asleep so I didn't want
- 7 The paint was still wet so I told
- 8 Rex was barking so I wanted

a) Can you make me a cup of tea, Rita?

b) Can you repeat the question, Mr Kaye?

c) Please don't make a noise, Tony.

d) Don't repeat it to anyone, Mark.

e) Don't phone after ten o'clock, Zoe.

f) Don't touch the window, Bill.

g) Please take the dog out, Ben.

h) Please take a photo of us, Liz.

124 Write reported requests and commands using asked or told.

Example (Mr Francis / Amanda) 'Could you give me your address, please?'

Mr Francis asked Amanda to give him her address.

1 (Mrs Salter / Joe) 'Sit down.'

2 (Sara / Jane) 'Could you come five minutes later?'

3 (Mrs Jay / Tim) 'Don't play with that knife.'

4 (receptionist / Bob) 'Could you fill in the form first?'

5 (Robin / waiter) 'Can you bring some more bread, please?'

• Reported statements

REMEMBER

Reported statements: tense changes

There are rules for tense changes after a past reporting verb, e.g. said or told.

Direct speech

1 present simple ➞

'She lives in Florida.'

2 present continuous ➞

'I'm studying medicine.'

3 present perfect ➞

'She hasn't finished yet.'

4 past simple ➞

'He broke my heart.'

5 will / can / may / might ➞

'I'll tell you soon.'

'He can borrow it.'

'I may be late.'

'It might not happen.'

Reported speech

past simple

He said that she lived in Florida.

past continuous

She told me that she was studying medicine.

past perfect

They said that she hadn't finished yet.

past perfect

She said that he had broken her heart.

would / could / might / might

You said that you'd tell me soon.

I said that he could borrow it.

I told you that I might be late.

He said that it might not happen.

Tell is always followed by an object:

You told me that you were going out tonight. I told John that he needed a haircut.

Note

- We can leave out the word that:

You told me you were going out tonight.

You said you were going out tonight.

Note

- When there are two sentences in direct speech we don't repeat the reporting verb.
She said 'I don't like chocolate. I never eat it.'
She said that she didn't like chocolate. She never ate it.
- There is no comma after said in reported speech.

126 Rewrite the sentences in reported speech.

Example Aykut said, 'I want to go to the concert tomorrow.'

Aykut said that he wanted to go to the concert the next day.

- 1 Martin said, 'I don't have any money because I lost my wallet last night.'

• Reported questions

REMEMBER

Reported questions: tense changes

Tense changes are the same in reported questions as in reported statements.

We do not use the question form of the verb. We use if or whether for reported yes/no questions.

Direct question

'What will they do?' he asked.

'Are you tired?' they asked me.

'Shall I answer the door?' she asked.

Reported question

He asked what they would do.

They asked me if I was tired.

She asked if she should answer the door.

127 Write who asked each question. Then complete the reported questions.

my sister the teacher the driver parents the doctor the dentist the shop assistant

Example

Shall I put your case in the back?

The driver asked Jim if he should put his case in the back.

1 Are you feeling a bit better this week?

..... asked Suzy

2 Are you going to take the brown shoes?

..... asked

Dave

3 What time will you be back tonight?

Gina's

asked her

4 Have you bought anything for Dad's birthday?

..... asked me

5 What is your answer to Question 4?

..... asked Peter

6 Which tooth is giving you trouble?

..... asked Mark

- Reported questions

128 Andy is telling Carol about his meeting with the police. Write reported questions in the blanks based on the direct questions in the box.

QUESTIONS THE POLICE ASKED ANDY

- Is it your motorbike? 1 When did you buy it? 2 How old are you?
 3 Have you got your driving licence with you? 4 Can I see it?
 5 Where are you going? 6 Where do you live?
 7 Are you a student or have you got a job?
 8 Where have you just come from?
 9 What time did you leave his house?
 10 Have you been anywhere near the After Dark Club this evening?

Andy: Sorry, I'm so late. I was stopped by the police on the way here.

Carol: Really? What did they want?

Andy: They asked me if it was my motorbike. Then they wanted to know
 (1) I told them and they asked me (2). I said eighteen and they asked (3)
 I said yes and one of them asked (4)
 So I showed it to them with all my other motorbike papers. Then they asked (5).
 I told them I was coming to see you and one of them looked at me carefully and asked me (6). I said Acton, We London, and then they wanted to know or (7) a job. They asked me
 (8) from. I gave them
 Steve's address and then they wanted to know
 (9) his house. Their last question was the strangest. They asked me
 (10) this evening. I said no. And then they said, 'Sorry to trouble you, sir. We thought you were someone else. You can go now.'

Carol: Well, I suppose you do look a bit like a criminal!

too + adjective / adverb + to and (not) + adjective / adverb + enough to

• too + adjective / adverb + to

REMEMBER

too + adjective / adverb + to

Too goes before an adjective or adverb:

This box is too heavy to move. (= We can't move it.)

She's too young to get married. (= She shouldn't get married yet.)

We got up too late to catch the 7 o'clock train. (= We couldn't catch it. We missed it.)

129 Join the two sentences using too ... to.

Examples I am very tired. I can't go to work.

I'm too tired to go to work.

This book is very boring. I can't finish it.

This book is too boring to finish. (not ~~This book is too boring to finish it.~~)

- 1 This suitcase is very heavy. I can't carry it.
- 2 It's very windy. We can't go swimming.
.....
- 3 The science project is very complicated. I can't do it alone.
.....
- 4 The car was very small. It couldn't take six people.
.....
- 5 The story was very long. I didn't finish it last night.
.....
- 6 My hair is very short. I can't put it in a ponytail.
.....
- 7 Jill is very busy. She can't start a new course.
.....
- 8 The lorry was very high. It didn't fit under the bridge.
.....
- 9 The coffee is very hot. I can't drink it.
.....
- 10 I'm very tired. I can't walk another step.
.....

• (not) + adjective / adverb + enough to

REMEMBER

(not) + adjective / adverb + enough to

He's not old enough to join the army. (= He can't join the army yet.)

He didn't run fast enough to catch the ball. (= He couldn't catch the ball.)

She's tall enough to be a model. (= She could be model.)

130 Join the pairs of sentences using (not) + adjective + enough.

Examples Jane's twenty. She can go out alone at night.

She's old enough to go out alone at night.

Sally's only ten. She can't go out alone at night.

She's not old enough to go out alone at night.

1 Mike isn't very clever. He can't solve that problem.

2 Brian is very smart. He could get a scholarship.

3 Mr Gates is very rich. He can buy anything he wants.

4 He isn't very healthy. He couldn't be a sports teacher.

• too ... to / not ... enough to

131 Join the pairs of sentences using too ... to or not ... enough to.

Examples That horse is very slow. It can't win the race.

That horse is too slow to win the race.

My brother isn't very old. He can't join a youth club.

My brother isn't old enough to join a youth club.

1 She was very polite. She didn't complain.

2 She was very embarrassed. She didn't argue about the bill.

3 We didn't get home early. We couldn't watch the sunset.

4 You don't speak very clearly. You wouldn't get a job on the radio.

Verbs followed by the gerund / the infinitive

Verbs followed by the gerund

REMEMBER

Some verbs are followed by a gerund, the -ing form of the verb:

hate	dislike	admit	delay
like	enjoy	deny	give up
love	mind	suggest	finish
prefer	fancy	stop	miss
be keen on	feel like	imagine	keep on
detest	think about	avoid	practise

We have just finished painting our room.

I'm not keen on swimming in very cold water.

The verbs like, hate, love, prefer can also be used with an infinitive:

I love to look at the fish and shells underwater.

I prefer to go for long, energetic swims.

We always use an infinitive after I'd like, I'd hate, I'd love, I'd prefer:

Would you like to go for a swim?

I'd love to ride on a dolphin's back.

I'd hate to meet a shark in the water.

132 Complete each sentence with the gerund of a verb from the box below:

have look after study throw tour walk work

Example My brother is thinking about studying medicine.

- If I go out tonight, would you mind the children?
- Before the match, the players practised the ball to each other.
- You should avoid around alone at night in certain areas.
- Bob has finally given up in the restaurant.
- When you were in Venice, did you enjoy the city by river boat?
- When you go away, I'm going to miss long conversations with you.

• Verbs followed by the infinitive

REMEMBER

Verbs followed by the infinitive

Some verbs are followed by the infinitive with to:

afford	choose	hope	plan	refuse
agree	decide	learn	prepare	seem
arrange	expect	manage	promise	want
apply	forget	offer	remember	would like
ask	help

They forgot to lock the door.

I didn't manage to finish the project.

These verbs take an object + the infinitive with to:

advise	invite	teach	They didn't let me use the pool because I wasn't staying at the hotel.
allow	order	tell	They made us pay extra for the beach umbrellas.
forbid	remind	warn

They allowed us to see round the ship.

She warned him not to stay out in the sun too long.

Note

- make and let take an object + infinitive without to.

They didn't let me use the pool because I wasn't staying at the hotel.

They made us pay extra for the beach umbrellas.

133 Complete each sentence with the infinitive of a verb from the box below. The infinitive might be with or without to.

work	stay	do	shut	wear	read
get	use	lend	join	come	buy

Example I can't afford to buy a new car.

She won't let me read her diary.

- 1 Yasar has just applied the army.
- 2 Julia has forgotten her homework again.
- 3 Would you like to the concert with us tonight?
- 4 Please remind me the window before we go out.
- 5 The employees refused through the night.
- 6 Why did you make me this ridiculous hat?
- 7 When are you planning married?
- 8 She didn't agree me her car.
- 9 Why won't you let us the computer?
- 10 The doctor ordered him in bed for a week.

• Verbs followed by the gerund / the infinitive
