Introduction

This book—which can be used alone, along with other vocabulary and spelling builders of your choice, or in combination with the LearningExpress publication, Vocabulary and Spelling Success in 20 Minutes a Day—will give you practice dealing with synonyms, vocabulary in context, antonyms, and spelling. It is designed to be used by individuals working on their own and for teachers or tutors helping students to build their vocabulary and spelling skills. Practice on 1001 vocabulary and spelling questions should go a long way in alleviating word anxiety!

Maybe you're one of the millions of people who, as students in elementary or high school, never understood the necessity of having to look up word after word in the dictionary. Or maybe you were often confused by all of those spelling rules, and those exceptions to the spelling rules. Or perhaps you could never see a connection between mastering vocabulary or spelling and everyday life. If you fit into one of these groups, this book is for you.

First, know you are not alone. It is true that some people relate more easily than do others to written language, and it is also true that some people have a natural gift for learning new words and for spelling. And that's okay; we all have unique talents. Still, it's a fact that on most jobs today, good communication skills—including vocabulary and spelling—are continue essential. A good vocabulary increases your ability to understand reading material and to express yourself in speaking and in writing. In the same way, being a good speller will make it easier for others to understand what you are trying to say. Without a broad vocabulary, your ability to learn is limited. The good news is that vocabulary and spelling skills can be developed with practice.

Learn by doing. It's an old lesson, tried and true. And it's the tool this book is designed to give you. The 700 vocabulary questions and 301 spelling questions in this book will provide you with lots of practice. As you work through each set of questions, you'll be gaining a solid understanding of word usage and spelling rules. And all without memorizing! The purpose of this book is to help you improve your vocabulary and spelling skills through encouragement, not frustration.

An Overview

1001 Vocabulary and Spelling Questions is divided into four sections:

Section 1: Synonyms

Section 2: Vocabulary in Context

Section 3: Antonyms

Section 4: Spelling

Each section is subdivided into short sets of between ten and twenty-five questions each. The book is specifically organized to help you build confidence as you further develop your vocabulary and spelling skills. The 700 vocabulary questions begin with synonyms (words that have the same meaning), move to vocabulary in context (determining the meaning of a word as it is used in a sentence), and finish with antonyms (words that have the opposite meaning). The book's last section, which consists of 301 spelling questions, starts with easy words, moves on to easily confused and commonly misspelled words, and ends with more difficult words.

How to Use This Book

Whether you're working alone or helping someone brush up on vocabulary and spelling, this book will give you the opportunity to practice, practice, practice.

Working on Your Own

If you are working alone to review the basics and prepare for a test in connection with a job or school, you will need a dictionary by your side. A good hardcover abridged dictionary has about 1,500 pages and more than 150,000 words. A paperback dictionary may work for spelling, but you'll want a good hardcover dictionary to use for checking vocabulary.

In addition to the dictionary, you'll probably want to use this book in combination with a basic vocabulary builder, a spelling text, or with Vocabulary and Spelling Success in 20 Minutes a Day. If you're fairly sure of your basic vocabulary and spelling skills, however, you can use 1001 Vocabulary and Spelling Questions by itself.

Use the answer key at the end of the book not only to find out if you got the right answer, but also to learn how to tackle similar kinds of questions next time. Every vocabulary word is defined; every misspelled word is spelled correctly. Make sure you understand the answer explanations—usually by going back to the questions—before moving on to the next set. If a word is still unfamiliar or confusing, look it up in your dictionary and write down the definition.

Tutoring Others

This book will work well in combination with almost any basic vocabulary builder or spelling text. You will probably find it most helpful first to give students a brief lesson on how to use a dictionary. Have them practice looking up words for meaning and for spelling and then have them spend the remainder of the session actually answering the questions in the sets. You will want to impress upon them the importance of learning by doing and of checking their answers and reading the explanations carefully. Make sure they know the meanings and spellings of all the words in a particular set of questions before you assign the next one. For the synonyms and antonyms, you may want to have students use each word in a sentence.

Section 1— Synonyms

The following section consists of fourteen sets of vocabulary questions, all of which ask you to find a synonym for a given word or phrase. (A synonym is a word that means the same or nearly the same as another word.) In the first six sets you will practice finding synonyms for single words. You may notice that the words in each set get progressively more difficult.

In sets 7 through 10, you are given a phrase with an underlined word. Notice, however, that the answer choices all fit into this phrase. In other words, you must know the meaning of the underlined word in order to choose the correct synonym.

In Set 11, you will find synonyms that are set up in analogies. Sets 12 and 13 ask you to find the meaning of prefixes, suffixes, and root words. Each question consists of two words with the same word part underlined. These two words may help you to find the correct meaning of the underlined portion.

Each question in the last set of this section gives you two underlined words or phrases and asks you to find the word that means the same as both of them.

Section 2— Vocabulary in Context

The thirteen sets in the section will give you practice answering questions that ask you to find vocabulary in context. In Section 1 you had less information to help you choose the correct answer, but in this section each question will provide you with a sentence or a passage that will offer you "clues" to finding the appropriate word or phrase.

In the first five sets, you will choose the word the best fits the blank in a given sentence. Sets 20 and 21 ask you to choose from four dictionary definitions. In Sets 22 and 23, you will replace a common word or phrase with a more descriptive one. Finally, in the last four sets, your context clues will come in the form of both short and long passages.

Section 3— Antonyms

The following section consists of eight sets of antonyms, or words with opposite meanings. Many antonyms seem obvious (good and bad, night and day, noisy and silent), but others are not as easily recognizable. This is because many words have more than one meaning. For example, the word clear could mean cloudless or transparent or unmistakable. And, for each of those meanings clear has an opposite. If an antonym isn't obvious, think about other possible meanings of the word. Also, don't be fooled by answer choices that are synonyms. Remember that you are looking for a word that means the opposite, not a word that means the same.

SET 11 (Page 26)

225. a. Tactful and diplomatic are synonyms (they mean about the same thing). Bashful and timid are also synonyms. The answer is not b or c because neither of these means the same as bashful. Bold (choice d) is incorrect because it means the opposite of bashful.

226. a. If someone has been humiliated, they have been greatly embarrassed. If someone is terrified, they are extremely frightened. The answer is not b because an agitated person is not necessarily frightened. Choices c and d are incorrect because neither word expresses a state of being frightened.

227. a. Control and dominate are synonyms, and magnify and enlarge are synonyms.

228. b. Exactly and precisely are synonyms, and evidently and apparently are synonyms. Choices a, c, and d are incorrect because none mean the same as apparently.

SET 14 (Page 32)

288. c. Examples: I love my little dog Boopsy. The police had begun to dog us everywhere we went.

289. b. Examples: A crow landed among the cornstalks. That award was something to crow about!

290. a. Examples: I love to walk in that field and smell the buttercups. Computer Science is not my field.

291. c. Examples: My favorite film is The Mummy's Curse. There was a film of grease over everything in the kitchen.

292. c. Examples: The burglars put a gag over the store-owner's mouth. I put a beetle in my brother's soup as a gag.

293. d. Examples: My hair was medium brown before I colored it red. The medium summoned up the spirit of my dead Uncle Elmer.

294. a. Examples: I'd rather play pool than go to class. Cindy Crawford invited us to swim in her pool.

295. c. Examples: The wisest political course is often the mean between two extremes. My Uncle Clarence was a mean penny-pincher until the day he died.

296. d. Examples: Sally Sue got a new dolly for her birthday. We'll need a dolly to unload all those crates of sausage off the truck.

297. a. Examples: When my father began to speak, the room grew very still. I took care of my brother-in-law's moonshine still while he was in jail.

298. d. Examples: Big Bart likes to strut around town in his logging boots. A slender pine-wood strut kept the scarecrow from falling over.

299. b. Examples: The overall growth in the economy caused business to boom in our town. While trying out his new sailboat, my friend Robert was hit in the head with the boom and knocked into the sea.

300. c. Examples: "City Slicker" is a really fast horse. A good way to diet is to fast one day a week.

301. a. Examples: Aunt Nell played the church organ for forty years. An organ transplant can often save a life.

302. b. Examples: The frame of the old cabin is still standing. Lefty was able to frame Big Louie for the heist.

303. c. Examples: My Algebra teacher was very stern, and we were all frightened of her. The H.M.S. Argonaut was gorgeous from stem to stern.

304. a. Examples: Vladimir was a real rake, but all the women loved him. I will use my new rake to make my lawn look neat and tidy.

305. b. Examples: They served lamb curry, which made me sick. The soldiers tried to curry favor with the lieutenant.

306. d. Examples: All we did that summer was lie around reading trashy pulp fiction. Scoop out the pulp of the apricot and mix it with powdered sugar.

Section 2— Vocabulary in Context

SET 15 (Page 36)

- 307. d. The word problem in this context means a source of distress. Choices b and c do not make sense. Choice a is a great source of distress, but parking tickets are usually not a disaster.
- 308. c. Rescue in this context implies freeing from danger. The other choices do not make sense.
- 309. a. Consider means to think about carefully.
- 310. b. The context clue is "we knew nothing." Secretive means having the habit of keeping secrets.
- 311. b. Summit means the highest point, where the hikers would have a view.
- 312. c. A consequence is the result of something.
- 313. c. A musty odor is one that is stale or moldy. The other choices are not descriptive of an odor.
- 314. a. Solitude, unlike loneliness (choice c), can be a desirable thing. It's doubtful that a person who dealt with crowds of noisy, demanding people every day would want association (choice b). Choice d makes no sense.
- 315. b. To be shunned is to be avoided deliberately, usually as a punishment.
- 316. c. Bobby's acting up in class must have made Ms. Willy angry (irate) or she probably would not have thrown an eraser. Although she was certainly animated (choice a) and although throwing an eraser is incautious (b), these words do not imply anger. Choice d makes no sense.
- 317. a. Spiteful means filled with hate or malice.
- 318. a. Accessible means capable of being reached; being within reach.
- 319. d. Outmoded means no longer in style or no longer usable.
- 320. b. A quest is a search or pursuit of something.
- 321. d. Ingenious means marked by originality, resourcefulness, and cleverness in conception; clever.
- 322. c. To be indispensable is to be essential or necessary.
- 323. d. Chronic means habitually recurring.
- 324. b. Adversely means acting against or in a contrary direction.

SET 16 (Page 38)

325. d. Docile means easily led or managed.

326. c. Explicit means clearly defined.

327. b. Apathetic means having little or no concern. (The principal had expected an uproar, but that never happened.)

328. d. Potable means fit for drinking.

329. a. Encompasses in this context means includes.

330. a. Devised means to form in the mind by new combinations or applications of ideas or principles; to plan to obtain or bring about.

331. d. To intimidate means to make timid or fearful; to frighten.

332. c. Quandary means a state of perplexity or doubt.

333. a. Precedence means priority of importance—i.e., studying is more important to Jessica than watching the Academy Awards.

334. c. Conspicuous means obvious to the eye or mind; attracting attention.

335. a. Monotonous means having a tedious sameness.

336. d. Resolved means having reached a firm decision about something.

337. a. Portrayal means representation or portrait.

338. c. Careen means to rush headlong or carelessly; to lurch or swerve while in motion.

339. a. Pungent implies a sharp, stinging, or biting quality, especially of odor.

340. d. Audibly means heard or the manner of being heard.

341. b. Voraciously means having a huge appetite; ravenously.

342. a. Mishap means an unfortunate accident.break

SET 17 (Page 40)

343. d. Legitimately means in a manner conforming to recognized principles or accepted rules or standards.

344. a. Warily means in a manner marked by keen caution, cunning, and watchful prudence. The context clue in this sentence is Jeffrey's nervousness.

345. b. Coyly means in a manner that is marked by cute, coquettish, or artful playfulness. In this context, the other choices make no sense.

346. a. Arrogant means exaggerating or disposed to exaggerate one's own worth or importance in an overbearing manner.

347. a. Wanton means being without check or limitation.

348. d. Integrity means firm adherence to a code of moral values; honesty.

349. b. To pummel means to pound or beat.

350. a. An eccentricity something that deviates from the norm. (Antique lemon juicers are not a commonplace item.)

351. b. Respite means an interval of rest and relief.

352. d. Facilitate means to make easier or help to bring about.

353. c. Exemplify means to be an instance of or serve as an example.

354. b. Confluence means a coming or flowing together, meeting, or gathering at one point.

355. d. Requisite means essential or necessary.

356. a. Delude means to mislead the mind; to deceive.

357. c. Comprehensive means covering completely or broadly. (Massive, choice d, refers to a large or bulky mass.)

358. b. Reticent means inclined to be silent or uncommunicative; reserved. Mary was silent at first, but then talked more than anyone else.

359. b. Precursor means something that comes before.

360. b. Reputedly means according to general belief.

SET 18 (Page 42)

361. a. Abated means to decrease in force or intensity.

362. c. Consummate means extremely skilled and experienced.

363. c. Assiduously means in a careful manner or with unremitting attention.

364. d. A commentary is something that explains or illustrates and fits best in this context.

365. b. To poach is to trespass on another's property in order to steal fish or game. Choices a and c would make little sense. Choice d seems too grand a description for the actions of two small boys.

366. d. To differentiate between two things is to establish the distinction between them. The other choices, although somewhat related, make no sense.

367. a. Something squalid has a dirty or wretched appearance. The other adjectives, though somewhat related, can properly be applied to a person but not to a place.

368. b. When a car goes out of control and skims along the surface of a wet road, it is called hydroplaning.

369. d. A clairvoyant is someone who can perceive matters beyond the range of ordinary perception.

370. a. The word unearthly (frighteningly weird and unnatural) best describes the way a ghost might shriek. A shriek cannot be covert (hidden, choice b), nor can it be abstruse (difficult to understand, choice c) because it does not seek to explain anything. The word esoteric (known only to a small number) does not precisely apply to a shriek, either.

371. d. A vortex is a whirlpool and so fits the sentence. The other choices do not make sense.

372. d. To be recalcitrant is to be stubbornly resistant. The other adjectives are not usually applied to human beings.

373. b. To be feasible is to be practicable and so the word best fits this sentence. The other three choices would not apply to projects that are possible (note that they all begin with prefixes generally meaning "not").

374. b. Something that is iridescent displays lustrous, rainbow colors. Choices a and b are somewhat close, but neither includes color as a necessary property. Cumulous (choice d) is a scientific name for a type of cloud.

375. c. To have rappport is to have mutual trust and emotional affinity. The other words do not necessarily imply trust.

376. d. A strident voice is one that is loud, harsh, and grating, so it best fits the sentiment "sit down and shut up." The word clamorous (choice a) has the connotation of a public outcry in more than one voice. Flocculent (choice b) denotes something fluffy or woolly, and affable (choice c) means "amiable."

377. d. To be reticent is to be disinclined to speak out. The other choices make no sense in this context.

378. c. To retract something is to take it back or disavow it. This is the term usually applied to disavowing something erroneous or libelous printed in a newspaper. The other choices are somewhat similar in meaning but do not normally apply to newspaper errors.

379. c. If something is incontrovertible, it is irrefutable. This word makes most sense in the context of an obvious crime.break

SET 19 (Page 44)

380. a. To administer means to give something remedially (transitive verb). To minister means to aid or give service to people (intransitive verb).

381. a. Eager implies enthusiastic or impatient desire or interest. Anxious implies a more negative feeling: an extreme uneasiness of mind, or worried.

382. a. Ensure means to make a future occurrence certain or reliable; insure means protecting the worth of goods; assure means to promise or cause someone to count on.

383. b. Nauseated means to feel nausea or the condition of feeling sick. Nauseous means causing nausea; nauseating; sickening. If you say you are nauseous it means you have unpleasant powers.

384. b. Well should be used as an adverb to modify verbs (how does it fit?). Good is an adjective often used with linking verbs (be, seem, or appear).

385. b. Comprises means to consist of—it expresses the relation of the larger to the smaller (think of this larger sense by remembering that comprises is a longer word than composes). Composes means to make up the parts of.

386. a. Discomfit means to wholly undo or defeat. Discomfort means to deprive of comfort or to distress.

387. a. Credible means offering reasonable grounds for being believed; credulous means ready to believe, especially on slight or uncertain evidence.

388. a. Annoy means a wearing on the nerves by persistent petty unpleasantness; aggravate means to make worse, more serious, or more severe—to intensify unpleasantly.

389. a. Adapt implies a modification according to changing circumstances. Adopt means accepting something created by another or foreign to one's nature.

390. b. Healthful implies a positive contribution to a healthy condition, or beneficial to health. Healthy implies full of strength and vigor as well as freedom from signs of disease.

391. b. Induct means to introduce or initiate. Deduct means to take away from a total.

392. a. Exhaustive means treating all parts without omission. Exhausting means tiring.

393. a. Feasible means logical or likely. Possible means capable of happening or existing.

394. b. Continuously means uninterrupted in time. Continually means recurring regularly.

395. a. Proceed means to go forward in an orderly way; precede means to come before.

396. a. Counsel means advice or guidance. A council is an assembly of people called together for consultation.

397. b. Compulsory means obligatory or required. Compulsive means having the capacity to compel.

398. b. Judicious is having or exhibiting sound judgment. Judicial is of or relating to courts of law.

399. a. Tortuous means winding or twisting. Torturous means of, relating to, or causing torture.

SET 20 (Page 46)

- 400. d. be forgotten
- 401. a. set or ask a price of
- 402. a. a complete course, succession, or series (Note that choice b is the wrong part of speech.)
- 403. a. mind and emotions as distinguished from the physical body (Choice b may be tempting, but the usual colloquial meaning of the phrase with us in spirit is choice a.)
- 404. d. instance or example (Choices a and b are superficially attractive, but the phrase case of mistaken identity can be used without reference to a claim or legal action.)
- 405. a. caused to move in a given direction
- 406. c. slight trace or bit
- 407. b. flagrant
- 408. c. to wash against with a gentle slapping sound
- 409. a. formulate
- 410. c. official routes of communication
- 411. d. glaze
- 412. a. prepare for action (note that choices c and d are not the correct parts of speech to fit grammatically)
- 413. c. squarely or solidly (note that choice a is the wrong part of speech)
- 414. d. incline
- 415. c. react explosively

SET 21 (Page 48)

- 416. c. lame (note that choice b is the wrong part of speech)
- 417. b. impudence or effrontery
- 418. c. two persons or things that harmonize with each other (We can assume that Clarissa and Calvin are people, which is the clue to choice c.)
- 419. d. is not concerned or troubled
- 420. d. device for circulating air
- 421. b. an arrangement in an orderly series
- 422. d. break away from
- 423. a. fellow
- 424. b. equivocate
- 425. b. extensive area of open land
- 426. c. body of official advisors
- 427. b. set at a specified downward slant
- 428. b. sell pilfered (stolen) goods
- 429. d. water pump
- 430. c. a preliminary sketch, outline, or version
- 431. a. to describe as having a specified character or quality

SET 22 (Page 50)

- 432. b. The word pristine is more a precise word for fresh and clean.
- 433. d. Gaggle is the most precise and interesting word. Herd (choice b) does not apply to birds.
- 434. b. To savor means to taste or smell with pleasure.
- 435. a. Abruptly means unexpectedly, occurring without warning.
- 436. c. Script refers to a specific way of forming letters.
- 437. d. The word dingy helps us picture the hallway better than the other choices do.
- 438. c. Yank is the only choice that fits the context of the sentence.
- 439. b. The word immaculate is the only one that connotes cleanliness.
- 440. d. Dissuade means to advise a person against something. Choices a and b make no sense. Choice c changes the meaning of the sentence.
- 441. d. This gives the most precise picture of the way the little girls moved and creates a visual image of moving in circles. Rotated (choice a) is an attractive choice, but is generally not used to refer to dancing.
- 442. b. This is the most vivid and zany exclamation, befitting a person who is on his third martini.
- 443. a. Debilitated means weakened or enfeebled.
- 444. c. This is the most succinct, accurate description, and the only one that includes the element of disorder.
- 445. c. Convoy means a group organized for protection in moving.
- 446. d. Bustled, meaning moved briskly, is the only choice that gives an active picture of how Mom came into the room.

SET 23 (Page 52)

- 447. d. This is the only choice that makes sense within the context of the sentence.
- 448. b. A squabble is a quarrel and a more precise word than disagreement.
- 449. c. This is the only choice that fits the context of the sentence. Lurch indicates a jerking or swaying movement.
- 450. d. This is the only verb that gives us a concrete mental image of the way her hair looked. Crimped means to form into a desired shape.
- 451. a. This is the only adjective that gives us a picture of the rather silly, affected way she walked. The other choices are redundant.
- 452. c. Consumed means to do away with completely. The other choices make no sense.
- 453. b. This description is most specific. Nutriment (choice a) is not specific; choices c and d make no sense.
- 454. a. Scintillate means to emit quick flashes.
- 455. d. The word jumble is most descriptive of exactly how the furniture was piled; it helps us form a mental image better than the other choices do.
- 456. b. This choice is more concrete than the others and is the only one that describes an attitude toward the chiffonier.
- 457. d. Jutted is the most vivid and concrete of the choices, helping us picture how the envelope looked.
- 458. c. This is the most particular description of what the women were wearing, and helps us form a word picture.
- 459. a. Ecstatic, which means being in a state of overwhelming delight, is the only choice that makes sense.
- 460. a. Surlly means irritably sullen in mood or manner. This is the only choice that indicates unfriendliness.
- 461. b. The word miasma connotes a poisonous vapor, an image that fits a state of depression. The other choices have other connotations and do not fit the context of the sentence.

SET 24 (Page 54)

- 462. b. A grimace is the contortion of facial features.
- 463. d. It makes sense that a subordinate monkey would be intimidated by a dominant one (choice d), and not the other way around (choice b). A monkey that is calm (choice a) would not be apt to show a fear grimace, nor would a monkey who is confident (choice c).
- 464. b. Stout works best in the context. Choice a can be ruled out because thin contradicts large. Choice c is redundant. There is no context to suggest choice d.
- 465. b. The author is describing Reed's appearance (in what is obviously an old-fashioned style). The word spacious means large or vast; the word visage means face.
- 466. a. An extremity is the outermost portion of something. The boy's limbs (arms and legs) have already been mentioned, so hands and feet is the next most logical choice.
- 467. c. Askance means with disapproval or distrust; scornfully. The context clue is the word glared, which indicates Leo's disapproval.
- 468. c. The immediate context of this adjective contains the words luxury, burst, fire and gold, all of which connote radiance.
- 469. a. Mention of pine immediately before the phrase and new hay immediately after makes choice a, a plant, the most logical choice.
- 470. c. Night usually brings darkness. There is no mention of death or ghosts (choice a) in the passage. The words obscurity and indistinctness (choices b and d) do not make sense here.
- 471. c. Debris and radiation are both hazards; choice c is the only possible answer.
- 472. a. Muscle atrophy and bone loss are examples of physical deterioration. There is no mention of illness in the passage (choice b), and choices c and d do not have anything directly to do with muscles or bones.
- 473. b. Although a muscle that atrophies may be weakened (choice c), the primary meaning of the phrase to atrophy is to waste away.
- 474. b. The word ambiance refers to the distinctive atmosphere surrounding a person or place.
- 475. a. In the context of today's business world, an entrepreneurial business is one that is unique and a bit off center, so the word idiosyncratic fits best.
- 476. a. This choice fits best as a contrast to the words small or medium and little.
- 477. b. The whole passage describes destruction by a storm, a force of nature. Choices a, c, and d refer to destruction by human beings.
- 478. a. In this context, leveled means flattened or completely destroyed. The context clue here is the word waterspouts, which refers to tornadoes.
- 479. b. Choices a, c, and d are human reactions and traits; therefore, choice b is the most logical choice.
- 480. d. The context clue is the word ancestors, which indicates generations. Choices a and b are too short a period of time; choice c is impossible.
- 481. c. The word shiftless means lazy. The passage also speaks of Howard Carpenter's callow fancy and calls him idle. Choices a and d are too positive, choice b too negative for the context of the passage.
- 482. a. Neither choice b or choice d are mentioned in the passage. Choice c is mentioned, but does not encompass all the cowbird's behavior. Choice a is the most inclusive definition.
- 483. a. The word lays is the key here. The only thing a bird would lay would be a collection of eggs.
- 484. d. To eject something is to throw it out forcefully.

SET 25 (Page 59)

485. b. The word option means choice. The mention of on-site and off-site disposal denotes two choices for hospital waste disposal. The other options may be accurate but do not contain the element of choice.

486. a. The passage states that the preliminary processing reduces the total volume of solid wastes before it leaves hospital grounds. The other choices are not in the passage.

487. a. To consolidate matter is to form it into a compact mass. The other choices have very different meanings.

488. a. A flag is a symbol or emblem that stands in the place of a country. Given that fact, the other choices do not make sense.

489. b. The passage is about the day Ghana gained its independence. To be independent is to be autonomous. The other choices do not denote independence. Choice a may seem correct at first, but to be alone implies isolation, not necessarily independence.

490. b. Dexterity means skill with the use of the hands.

491. a. The fact that the passage is a warning points to choice a, which speaks of adverse effects. The other choices would not call for a warning.

492. d. To be allergic to a thing is to be sensitive to it. The other choices do not make sense in the context of the passage.

493. b. This choice, which means random or haphazard, makes most sense in the context of the passage. The use of medical abbreviations could not be choice a, clandestine (secret). The passage does not indicate that anything unlawful (choice c) is involved. The word intrepid (choice d) means fearless, which does not make sense in terms of the passage.

494. d. It is logical to deduce that unclear orders by a doctor, in the form of medical abbreviations, would call for clarification. The other choices are illogical.

495. b. The first sentence of the passage says that adolescents can be BOTH victims and perpetrators, so choice a is obviously wrong. Choices c and d are wrong because neither describes adolescents.
break

496. c. Since the passage deals with violence by and against adolescents, it makes most sense that violence prevention programs would attempt to teach peaceful settlement.

497. d. To retaliate means to get even, or pay back.

498. b. Chalky is a descriptive word often used in place of the word white. Eggs are not made of chalk (choices a and d), and there is nothing in the passage to suggest that anyone tasted the Albatross egg (choice c).

499. c. The wake is the turbulent water behind the ship, so choice c is the only logical choice. The other choices deal with other parts of a ship.

500. c. The main topic of the passage is the need for detectives to be sensitive to the fact that, for victims of crime, this is not an ordinary situation; therefore, the choice that contains the word insensitive makes the most sense in the context of the passage. Also the passage concerns detectives who routinely investigate violent crime—that is, have continued exposure to it, as stated in choice c.

501. a. Something that is paradoxical is contradictory. The phrase in contrast is the only term that is close in meaning.

502. b. The word vulnerable means "susceptible to injury," so choice b makes the most sense. Although the victims of violent crime may feel the emotions described in all the choices, a further clue to choice b is the statement that the victims of violent crime usually feel violated.

503. d. The topic of the passage is the need for detectives to be sensitive to the needs of the victims, so choice d, which contains the word sympathetically, fits best in context.

679. d. Entice means to attract by arousing hope; repel means to drive away.

671. c. Ingenuous means noble, honorable, natural, or candid; the opposite would be calculating.

672. b. To be ostentatious is to be showy and boastful; the opposite would be humble.

673. a. Endorse means to approve; condemn means to disapprove.

674. c. Accede means to express approval or give consent; disapprove means to express disapproval.

675. b. Copious means plentiful; meager means deficient in quality or numbers.

676. b. Ambivalence is uncertainty as to which approach to follow; decisiveness is having the power or quality of deciding.

677. b. Divergent means differing from a standard; identical means being the same.

678. d. Pensive means sadly thoughtful; thoughtless means lacking concern for others, careless, or devoid of thought.

679. a. One definition of discernible is visible with the eyes, so the opposite would be invisible.

684. c. Deplete means to lessen in quantity, content, or values; replace means to put something in place of.

685. d. Equanimity means evenness of mind, especially under great stress; perplexity means a state of bewilderment.

SET 35 (page 83)

686. c. Scarcely is the opposite of mostly, and quietly is the opposite of loudly. Choices a and b are clearly not opposite of quietly. Choice d means the same as quietly.

687. d. Candid and indirect are opposing traits. Honest and devious are opposing traits. The answer is not choice a, because frank means the same thing as candid. Wicked (b) is incorrect because even though it is a negative trait, it does not mean the opposite of honest. Choice c is incorrect because truthful and honest mean the same thing.

688. a. Meaningful is the opposite of insignificant. Essential is the opposite of unnecessary. Choice b is incorrect because the word important has a similar meaning to essential. The answer is not choice c or d because neither is the opposite of essential.

689. b. Simple is the opposite of complex. Trivial is the opposite of significant. The answer is not choice a or c because neither of these is the opposite of trivial. Choice d is incorrect because irrelevant means about the same trivial.

690. b. Elated is the opposite of despondent; enlightened is the opposite of ignorant. The answer is not choice b because aware is a synonym for enlightened. The answer is not choice c or d because neither of these is the opposite of enlightened.

691. a. Divulge and conceal are opposite in meaning. Conform and differ are antonyms. The other choices are not the opposite of conform.

692. c. Admire and despise are antonyms. Praise and admonish are opposite in meaning. The other choices are not the opposite of praise.

693. d. Advance and retreat are antonyms. curtail and prolong are opposite in meaning. The other choices are not the opposite of curtail.

694. a. Gratuitous and expensive are antonyms. Sedentary and active are opposite in meaning. The other choices are not the opposite of sedentary.

695. c. Gluttonous (meaning ravenous, piggish, or greedy) and abstemious (meaning moderate or abstinent) are antonyms. Complimentary and disparaging are opposite in meaning. The other choices are not the opposite of complimentary.

696. b. Trust and suspicion are antonyms. Apex and nadir are opposite in meaning. The other choices are not the opposite of apex.

697. a. Deprivation and affluence are antonyms. Capitulation and resistance are opposite in meaning. The other choices are not the opposite of capitulation.

698. c. Companion and enemy are antonyms. Anonymity and fame are opposite in meaning. The other choices are not the opposite of anonymity.

699. d. Inebriated and sober are antonyms. Atrocious and noble are opposite in meaning. The other choices are not the opposite of atrocious.

700. b. Ornately and plainly are antonyms. Blithely and morosely are opposite in meaning. The other choices are not opposite of blithely.
